

▶ Level One “What” questions ◀

1. Why do you think prophecy is such a fascinating subject?
2. What would you like to know most about your future? Why?
3. Who is the only Person who knows the future?
4. What does God want of us regarding the future?
5. In Daniel 9, what do we get a first glimpse of Daniel doing? Why was he doing this?
6. What was the major concern that motivated Daniel to search the scriptures?
7. What was Daniel seeking in the scriptures to experience?
8. What may have been one of the greatest fruits of the exile experience in the live of the Jews?
9. What is it that moves Daniel to pray?
10. What effect does reading the Bible have on your prayer life? Explain.

▶ Level Two “When” questions ◀

11. (Share about) When in the past have you “earnestly sought the scriptures?”
12. (Share about) When have you been motivated to pray after reading the Bible?
13. (Share about) Where does reading the Bible rank in your list of priorities? Where should it rank?
14. (Share about) When have you even experienced God while reading His word? Do you think this should be a frequent occurrence?

▶ Level Three “How” questions ◀

15. How can the over-arching message of the book of Daniel help you to read His word more?
16. How important are the Scriptures to your life? Explain.
17. How do we find God today?
18. How are we to interpret Jesus’ words (in John 6:53) to “eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood”?
19. How do we do this in practice?
20. How much, or to what extent are we to be like Jesus? How does His word play a pivotal role in this transformation? Can this transformation take place without His word? Why? Why not?
21. How can the Bible “move up” in ranking in your life to the place God wants them to be?
22. (Everybody) How will you specifically put what this sermon has taught you into practice?

In His service,
Jerry Zell