

▶ Level One “What” questions ◀

- According to 1 Corinthians 14:1, what spiritual gift should we eagerly desire?
- Why do you think the Apostle Paul placed such a high value on prophecy?
- What is the main difference between O.T. prophets and N.T. prophets?
- What is New Testament prophecy?
- Who can prophecy?
- According to 1 Corinthians 14:1, 5, 39 – who might have the ability to prophecy?
- What are the three “levels” of this gift of prophecy that Zac mentioned?
- What is necessary if prophecy is to function effectively in the life of the church?
- What are the three things to consider when discerning a prophetic message?
- What are the two categories of prophecy?
- Which of these are to be subject to more rigorous testing? Why?
- What four guidelines did Zac give us to the discernment of a prophecy?
- What six guidelines did Zac give us to the discernment of a prophet?
- Since prophecy is not an “exact science”, what kind of environment must we have to allow a person to experiment in this gifting?

▶ Level Two “When” questions ◀

- When have you ever believed that the Holy Spirit gave you a word of strengthening, encouragement or comfort for another believer(s)? Did you share it?
- When have you ever desired the gift of prophecy?
- Where in the past has a person ever spoken a word of strengthening, encouragement or comfort that ministered to you?
- Where do you think God can use you to prophecy?

▶ Level Three “How” questions ◀

- How can we encourage each other to simply be open to this gift?
- How does this gift from the Holy Spirit enable us to more effectively minister to one another?
- How can you make yourself available to God to be used to prophecy?
- How can the one who prophecies avoid the fleshly habit of getting puffed up?
- How do you have to change in order for our church to move forward and embrace prophecy?
- In view of 1 Corinthians 13, how should we proceed in the use of this gift?
- How can you make yourself ready to receive, test and approve the use of this gift?
- How will you begin?
- How can this Minichurch help you?