

▶ Level One “What” questions ◀

- (From the notes); What are the five additional comments on the gift of tongues?
- Why do you think it was important that Zac chose to cover these?
- What is the trouble that can happen if a Christian has an unbiblical view of tongues?
- What other warnings did Zac give us about the unbiblical use of the gift of tongues?
- Why do you think Paul, after many warnings about the unbiblical use of the gift of tongues, does not forbid their use?
- What is the definition of the gift of interpretation of tongues?
- What is necessary for a Christian to get out of their “comfort zone” and step out in either congregational use of tongues, or their interpretation? (Faith.)
- What safeguards does Zac point out for the gift of interpretation of tongues?
- Why, if tongues & interpretation can be so easily abused and become a danger rather than a blessing, would God choose to use this extraordinary gift combination?
- What are the three things necessary for this gift combination to work as God intended?
- What important lessons have you learned about the gifts of tongues and interpretation of tongues? What questions do you have?

▶ Level Two “When” questions ◀

- When have you ever had an unbiblical view of tongues or their interpretation?
- When have you ever heard a public tongue and you thought you knew its interpretation?
- Where might God be calling you to be available to Him in the use of tongues & interpretation?

▶ Level Three “How” questions ◀

- How should you regard all of these admonitions and warnings about the use of tongues and their interpretation?
- How should this gift, as well as all other spiritual gifts be viewed by its user?
- How can someone who speaks in a tongue avoid looking down on a fellow brother or sister who does not speak in tongues?
- How can you avoid or steer clear of your fleshly tendencies to boast or show off if you have either of these gifts?
- How can you step out in faith, if you believe you have either or both of these gifts?
- How does humility and an openness to correction help you in the use of tongues and their interpretation?
- How does the Apostle Paul regulate the use of the gifts? (1 Corinthians 14:27)
- How can the three things mentioned for this gift combination to work as God intended help you to have a proper attitude?
- How can your Mini Church help you to grow in your spiritual gifts?