

Which would you choose?

Who would agree with this statement: a growing Christian _____ needs to _____ on the condition of his/her _____ so that _____ can flourish.

Traditionally this has been called an _____
_____.

- it involves a comparison, made regularly of our _____,
_____, and _____ with Biblical standards of Holiness.

The goal is to _____, _____ and _____ the Lord Himself.

1John 3:2 –

1 John 3:3 –

What does David say in Psalm 51:2,7,10?

How did David hope to be cleansed?

What does David say in Psalm 32:2-5?

If you want to be close with God and move in harmony with His desires – it is imperative to _____ our _____ so that we can lean what keeps us from close _____ with Him.

How do we do this? By pondering a list of questions that help us identify both sins of _____ and sins of
_____.

We want to identify _____ areas and gain a realistic _____ of ourselves so we can be _____.

If we keep that purpose in mind – then we won't allow such self-examination to lead to a sense of _____ or
A morbid preoccupation with our _____.

This process has two aspects 1) looking closely at _____
2) looking closely at _____

Lamentations 3:40 –

What is our tendency as fallen creatures?

1 John 1:8-9 tells us what?

- To confess our sins we must have some idea of what they are

- A prayerful self-examination based on Biblical texts – using them as a _____ in which we can view ourselves is a good approach.

James 1:23-25

Sermon on the Mount – Matthew 5-7 –

Do I _____?

Am I known for _____?

The works of the flesh and the fruit of the Spirit – Gal. 5:16-23

Am I _____?

Am I _____?

Am I _____?

Am I _____?

The “love” chapter – 1 Corinthians 13

Am I _____?

Do I _____?

Do I _____?

Qualities to seek “in increasing measure” – 2 Peter 1:5-9

Am I _____?

Do I _____?

The Ten Commandments – Exodus 20: 1-17

Exodus 20:3-4

Have I served God _____ or _____?

Has anything become more _____ to me than God?

Have I neglected my _____ or other aspect of my relationship with God for other _____?

Have I used my _____ diligently and generously for God’s glory?

Exodus 20:7 –

Have I made use of His name in any _____ manner?

Have I failed to do my best to keep _____ and _____ made to God?

Exodus 20:8 –

Have I failed to join with other believers in _____ regularly?

When in worship, have I tried my best to lay aside _____ and focus my attention on God?

Have I spent the Sabbath in ways that are spiritually _____?

The over-arching question in such an examination is this –
To what degree have I kept not just the _____ of the law, but the _____ of the law as well?

Conclude with Psalm 130

God’s desire is not to _____ us, but to make us _____, no longer _____ to _____.

Acts 24:16