

The Source of True Wisdom Part 2

Daniel 2

Pastor Zac Nazarian

June 26-28, 2009

How does Daniel chapter 2 open?

On a surface reading, the central issue seems focused on the _____ and its _____.

The central issue of the dream is Daniel's God-given _____ to interpret the dream.

Chapter 2 is all about the contest between the _____ and _____, but more profoundly between the _____ and the _____ that the king's advisors worship.

Where the "wise men" of Babylon _____, Daniel _____ . Why?

Only _____ wisdom, according to Daniel, can reveal the _____ - _____ wisdom falls short.

Some general categories of dreams:

- 1) _____ - dreams caused by, or signifying some bodily condition or disease.
- 2) _____ - dreams of levitation or soaring.
- 3) _____ - dreams in which the individual feels that he/she cannot move/speak.
- (4) _____ - two or more people having the same dream.
- (5) _____ - dreams of foreboding
- (6) _____ - dreams that clearly, or symbolically, anticipate some future event.

Biblical dreams are both _____ and _____ . (also dreams of _____.)

What book of the Bible do we normally think of as revealing God's wisdom?

How can Proverbs be misread? What would that lead to?

In Proverbs chapter 1-9, what two concepts are contrasted?

How are they personified?

What do they represent?

The Proverbs are not just _____ or based on

_____, they are rather the result of a _____ with God.

What is the origin of wisdom?

Proverbs 1:7 –

Proverbs 9:10 –

Job is characterized as a _____. The lesson comes at the end of the book. How?

In Ecclesiastes, wisdom is not the _____.

What is urged at the end of Ecclesiastes?

The divine origin of wisdom is not a _____ to be learned but a _____ to be enjoyed.

The Apostle Paul realized the true wisdom is a result of a _____ with _____.

If asked about the source of wisdom, Paul's reply would be
_____. (see 1 Corinthians 2:10b-16)

We have the _____ of Christ, we have a _____ with Christ, God's own Son, in whom _____

_____. (Colossians 2:3)

Jesus is _____ Himself. (1 Corinthians 1:30)

For us to be wise, we must be _____ with Him. And we gain wisdom in conversation with Him through _____ and reading His _____.

Wisdom is a _____ that produces a
_____, a way of looking at the world.

In the dream of Daniel 2, who/what is the rock?

How do you understand true wisdom? How will you gain/grow in true wisdom?

How does the condition for receiving Spiritual wisdom differ from those necessary to gain the world's wisdom?

What differences do you see between human wisdom and God's?