

2 Chronicles 36:1-13

2 Kings 24-25

Jeremiah 52:1-3

The main theme of the book of Daniel is the _____
_____ over the affairs of men in _____ ages.

The book of Daniel gives the only _____ view of world history from _____ to the _____
and interrelating _____ history and prophecy with that which concerns _____.

How many times did the Babylonian army besiege Jerusalem?

At each appearance of the Babylonian army, what should the Jews in Jerusalem have realized?

Do individuals who sin escape the built-in consequences of sin? What about nations?

If the “wages of sin is death;” what are the wages of national sin?

Why do most people believe they are acceptable to God?

Where does sinful behavior arise from?

Jeremiah 17:9 –

Matthew 15:19 –

Who are the last four kings to reign in Jerusalem?
(from the reading)

1)

2)

3)

4)

- What characterizes each of their reigns?

- In the cycle of good and bad kings (leaders) and their effect on people, two major compulsions are evident in 2 Chronicles.

- a) The compulsion of tyrannized people to assert their freedom and
- b) The compulsion of free people to self-destruct.

How are these seen in your world?

In your own life cycle and struggles with freedom, which do you feel more compelled to do right now?

What effect can Godly parents have on their children?

What is it that Godly parents cannot do for their children?

Following God is a _____. Where does the Bible teach this?

One of the basic principles of human life is that of _____ and _____. Where does the Bible teach this?

How have you experienced this principle?

If you knew God's judgment was coming upon the world in six months, how would you spend your time?

Are you spending your time any differently now?

Why/why not